Dear Ankit,

As discussed, kindly find attached standard specifications which have been uploaded on ITDA website on below mentioned URL as well for your reference.

Link: https://itda.uk.gov.in/general-documents

Please also refer to note uploaded on website:

Note: "The following specifications have been developed with the fundamental needs of a Government Office in mind. They are both prescriptive and suggestive, intended to address general office-related requirements. Should a department wish to procure higher-end items or modify any specifications listed here due to specific needs, they can do so in accordance with the Government Order Notification I/160676/2023 dated 11/10/2023."

Regards,
Navneet
